DON-NAVY-2018-000039	Appeal	Dear FOIA Officer: [partial appeal - full appeal attached] The requested documents are a video enclosure taken from a surveillance camera on Oahu. The Marine's refusal to disclose the requested items violates the federal Freedom of Information Act (FOIA or Act), 5 U.S.C. Â§ 552 et seq., as amended. As requested on February 16, 2017, I seek a video enclosure of the January 14, 2016 mishap involving two CH-53E Super Stallion helicopters. The original request was denied because the video file could not be found. I appealed that determination, on the grounds that a sufficient search was not completed. My appeal was granted and the FOIA was once again denied. The denial stated that the video was exempt under b(6) or b(7)(c) of FOIA. I am appealing this determination. The screenshots from the video are publically available. FOIA policy states that: " (2) Each agency, in accordance with published rules, shall make available for public inspection and copying for public inspection in an electronic format... (D) copies of all records, regardless of form or format, which have been released to any person under paragraph (3) and which, because of the nature of their subject matter, the agency determines have become or are likely to become the subject of subsequent requests for substantially the same records; and copies of all records, regardless of form or format " (i) that have been released to any person under paragraph (3)" The screengrabs of this video, which are the most graphic portions, were determined to be non-exempt when they were publically released. The video should be treated consistently. Because I do	10/2/2017	10/24/2017	Completely Reversed/Remanded

DON-NAVY-2018-000045	Request	Copy of all available documents relating to Vacancy ID #1970864, a Program Analyst position supporting the Aegis Ballistic Missile Defense (ABMD) Department at NAVSEA. Job was posted on the USAJOBS.gov website under Control Number 471616500 starting on 06-12-17, and the applications period closed a week later on 06-19-17. I want to determine if a hiring decision was officially made, whether the position has been filled yet, and if not, what the reason is for it being pulled back, and whether there is still a chance that it will be at some later time. Request name of hiring manager/official responsible for selecting final candidate to be chosen, and any notes/information they provided to validate their decision (if the job has in fact been filled). Also, request copy of documents submitted by the person who was selected instead of myself, to include their name, Federal employee and/or veteran's status, and their resume and other supporting materials they supplied to detail their education, work experience, and qualifications for this position. Finally, wish to see a breakdown of candidate ranking and/or point totals, and an explanation of how those rankings were derived and/or point totals were arrived at. At a minimum, I expect to see the application point totals for myself and the person who was selected over me (if that should be the case). I honestly believed I was the proverbial "ideal candidate" for this job, but after a protracted waiting period, I was notified simply that "The selecting office has indicated that you were not selected for the position." DON-NAVY-2018-000161	Appeal	I am challenging all exemptions utilized in the documents released. The b(5) exemption is for "inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters that would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency" and the DOJ FOIA Guide threshold "exempt those documents, and only those documents that are normally privileged in the civil discovery context". These records concern myself are not confidential legal advice, pre-decisional, or working law records thus no b(5) exemptions should be implemented. The b(6) exemption is for "personnel and medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy" and its DOJ threshold "the Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit has declared that "under Exemption 6, the presumption in favor of disclosure is as strong as can be found anywhere in the Act". The US DoD Warning Statement that attaches for access to a US Government Information System (USGIS) makes it very clear that there is no expectation of privacy when using a USGIS except in specific circumstances related to attorneys, psychotherapists, clergy, and their assistants. USGIS work email is not a personnel, medical or similar file and it is not an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. The FOIA allows the public to find out what their government is up to and because government officials have limited privacy interests, particularly with regard to their official conduct, the emails generated in the course of Agency business that produced a Federal record should not be redacted under b(6). The U-T requests copies of the following records, or all records containing the following information, preferably in electronic format to save the Navy copying costs and undue labor: â€¢ The completed investigative report prepared by the Navy following the death of Seaman James Derek Lovelace during training in Coronado, California. Lovelace died during Combat Swimmer Orientation, a test that takes place in the first week of BUD/S training to assess a SEAL candidateâ€™s swimming abilities. Students tread water and perform survival skills, including the removal of a swim mask, uniform and boots. Naval Criminal Investigative Service (â€œNCISâ€) informed the U-T that it would release all relevant reports on the matter once the process for determining whether criminal charges would be filed in the case had run its course. Following a similar decision by Navy prosecutors, the U.S. Department of Justice has declined to file charges in the Lovelace case, ending the matter. DON-NAVY-2018-000397	Request	In response to the January 23, 1968 Pueblo Incident, aircraft carriers, destroyers, submarines and other ships were sent into the Sea of Japan off the coast of Korea. In retaliation for these U.S. ships, a large number of Soviet ships and submarines were also sent, mostly out of Vladivostok. At first, U.S. authorities said X number of ships were involved. Later, they revealed that the number of U.S. ships was actually greater than originally reported. Meanwhile, there was hardly any mention of Soviet battle ships and submarines, except for one or two Russian spy ships. According to Beecher, William, "Posting of U.S. Intelligence Ship Off Korea Believed Under Study," New York Times, Apr. 24, 1969, p. 7: The U.S. task force was originally reported as comprising 23 ships, but the actual number was closer to 40, including three attack aircraft carriers, one anti-submarine carrier, three cruisers, 22 destroyers, at least five submarines, and between 4 and 6 other vessels including ammunition and provision ships. DON-NAVY-2018-000574	Request	I am currently researching for my Ph.D. with the University of Glasgow, and I am writing about the Maritime Patrol Aircraft operations that took place in the North Atlantic during the Cold War up to the present. The U.S. Navy deployed several squadrons to Naval Air Station Keflavik, Iceland, in order to cover the areas South and East of Iceland, and worked extensively in collaboration with Norwegian and British units. Little has been written about this collaboration effort, and my research is seeking to remedy this. I have been onto the Naval History and Heritage Command archival website, but unfortunately there hasn't been posted any VP (maritime patrol) squadron Command Operations Reports (COR). I would humbly like to request you to release the COR's for the following squadrons and years: VP-5 (1953, 1957, 1959-1961, 1962, 1976, 1978, 1979, 1992, 1993, 1994, 1997) VP-7 (1952, 1959, 1963, 1964) VP-8 (1952, 1953, 1954, 1986, 1989) VP-10 (1954, 1955, 1958, 1961, 1966, 1967, 1970, 1981, 1982, 1983, 1985, 1988, 1996, 1997, 1998) VP-11 (1963, 1967, 1968, 1969, 1982, 1983, 1985, 1986, 1988, 1989) VP-16 (1954, 1956, 1957, 1958, 1961, 1962, 1963, 1975, 1977, 1978, 1984, 1991, 1992, 1995) VP-18 (1955, 1956, 1959, 1960, 1963) VP-21 (1959, 1960, 1965) VP-23 (1956, 1958, 1964, 1965, 1979, 1980, 1981, 1987) VP-24 (1959, 1963, 1964, 1968, 1969, 1971, 1972, 1973, 1974, 1975, 1977, 1991, 1994, 1995) VP-26 (1952, 1953, 1955, 1957, 1958, 1959, 1960, 1961, 1966, 1967, 1969, 1970, 1982, 1987, 1988, 1996, 1997) VP-40 (1985) VP-44 (1967, 1968, 1969, 1979, 1986, 1987,	10/20/2017	5/15/2018	Duplicate Request

DON-NAVY-2018-000634	Appeal	I've just received this response to my FOIA request, attached. It includes, as the Navy's final response, one newspaper clipping about the mentioned plane crash. I believe that this response follows neither the letter nor the spirit of the FOIA law and I am requesting an appeal based on the fact that, with regards to this event, I believe there are more records related than have been released. I have reason to believe that more records were taken related to this crash, and that that they would be in possession of the base at Sigonella. This was a large crash that involved service member deaths and the complete destruction of a service aircraft that carried a significant amount of hazardous materials as ballast, requiring extensive cleanup. I understand that this was an Air Force aircraft, but also know that the crash was managed by and significantly affected the base at Sigonella. I make this request after extensive reporting in and around the area where Sigonella is located. DON-NAVY-2018-000638	Request	Following the Seizure of the USS Pueblo by North Korea on January 23, 1968, there was no mention of the Russians. According to press reports and newly declassified NSA documents, however, the Russians may have shadowed the Pueblo since it departed Japan on January 11th, the Pueblo's first target was Vladivostok, the ship's sailing and operational orders show that the Pueblo's mission was to intercept Soviet telemetry and SIGINT near the Soviet coast near Vladivostok and along the east coast of North Korea, and to challenge Soviet spy ships, disguised as fishing trawlers, in Tsushima Strait, Japan. Once the Pueblo was captured, the Navy revealed they had sent the USS Enterprise and screening to Korea. But they made no mention of the THREE aircraft carriers and submarines also sent. Nor was there mention of the number of Soviet ships and subs sent in retaliation to the U.S. armada. According to Russian sources, more than two dozen ships and subs challenged the U.S. ships. In 1969, a New York Times article (attached) disclosed the actual (approximate) number of U.S. ships and subs involved. I am requesting all documents concerning the U.S. ships sent into the Sea of Japan in a show-of-force, who in the Navy authorized that these vessels be sent, documents showing the names of each ship and submarine sent, and all reports indicating the total number of Soviet ships and subs sent in retaliation, including charts if available. DON-NAVY-2018-000733	Request	Dear Records Access Officer: Please consider this FOIA request for all records maintained by DON that detail the security clearance history of Navy Reserve Commander Thomas D. Croci, including all records and correspondence relative to Croci's clearance status and his adherence to all clearance self-reporting requirements to which he is subject. Some background on my request: Croci was involved in a guardianship dispute in 2013 in which a court evaluator found he had taken advantage of an elderly aunt for financial gain. He reached a settlement with the aunt in which he resigned as her financial trustee, in turn, the aunt agreed to retract any complaints she'd made to local prosecutors. More recently, and in response to a FOIA request, the Navy provided me records that showed in 2013, while the guardianship case was proceeding in secret, Croci sought out and voluntarily accepted mobilization. At the time, he was the supervisor of a large Long Island town. He publicly characterized his mobilization as compulsory, leaving out his role in bringing it about. Croci is now a New York State senator. In considering my request and balancing the public interest in disclosure against any privacy interest you may identify, please note that Croci is a public official. In the context of FOIA, courts have found repeatedly that public officials have a diminished expectation of privacy. Certainly the evaluator's report and the settlement in 2013, and perhaps the true circumstances of Croci's mobilization, given that he did not disclose them to the	10/25/2017	10/26/2017	Not an Agency Record

DON-NAVY-2018-000857	Request	In 2011, a Commanding Officer, CDR (b) (6), was directed to present a Command Climate Survey to the Unit he took command of, Navy Expeditionary Intelligence Command. The results were from the routine Command Climate Survey conducted during his first 90 days in command. The reason this had to be presented was because of an Article 138 filed on the previous Commanding Officer. It was documented in the Command Climate Survey focusing on CDR (b) (6) leadership in 2011, prior to him taking command, that a strong female command climate problem existed under her command. As part of the outcome of an Article 138, then Admiral Tillotson, NECC, mandated the results be presented to the entire command by the CO, XO, and CMC. I have a case with the Board for Correction of Naval Records, related to this situation in 2011. (b) (6)	10/29/2017	11/7/2017	No Records

DON-NAVY-2018-000874	Request	We represent (b)(6). Pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. Â§552, we are requesting any and all documentation concerning any investigation into the circumstances of his death on or about January 28, 1947. His body was found on that date by (b)(6) at the Quonset Point Naval Air Station near Providence, Rhode Island, where he served as a Naval Airman. We believe that pilot (b)(6) was apart of Test Pilot Group 18. As we understand he was found hanging in his shower, his hands bound and his mouth taped and scalding water running over his body. (b)(6) had been accused of having some part in the deaths of other pilots at the station and the death was termed a suicide, despite the egregious circumstances as we understand them. (b)(6) body was shipped to his home in Newberg, Oregon in the company of Airman (b) (6) who discovered the body. (b)(6) family has never been at peace concerning the death as witnessed by his aged sister now asking for information. I want to help her find some peace if at all possible. We request timely confirmation of your receipt of our request, and we are willing to pay for any necessary copies of relevant documents. Felix, involving Gunnery Sgt. (b) (6) who was a drill instructor at Parris Island. Specifically, I'm looking for the cleansed charge sheet for (b) (6)'s general court-martial, which is scheduled aboard Marine Corps Base Camp Lejeune, NC, starting 31 October, 2017. If available, I would like these records in a digital format (PDF, for example), so that they may be provided electronically. As a representative of the news media, I am only required to pay for the direct cost of duplication after the first 100 pages. Through this request, I am gathering information on United States v. (b) (6) that is of current interest to the public because the case involves allegations of hazing and abuse of U.S. Marine recruits at Parris Island, including Raheel Siddiqui, who died at the depot in March 2016. This information is being sought on behalf of The Detroit News for dissemination to the general public. Release of the information is in the public interest because it will contribute significantly to public understanding of government operations and activities. I am requesting expedited processing, as the trial is scheduled to run for 16 days and is expected to be concluded when the 20-day response period expires. DON-NAVY-2018-001206	Appeal	To whom it may concern: On behalf of AquaLaw PLC, I hereby appeal the Navy's decision (or lack thereof) on FOIA request No. DON-NAVY-2017-009499, which was submitted on August 11, 2017. Specifically, AquaLaw appeals the Navy's failure to respond to its request for the production of the second and third documents (hereinafter the "Requested Documents") in its original FOIA request and to produce copies of the Requested Documents. The Navy ignored many of its own regulations when it failed to respond to AquaLaw's FOIA Request. By adopting the advice disclosed in the Requested Documents and describing their contents in publicly-available Navy guidance documents, the Navy stripped the Requested Documents of any reason why they should not be disclosed pursuant to a FOIA request. To date, the Navy has failed to produce copies of the Requested Documents, much less provide an appropriate response to AquaLaw's FOIA request, and ignored AquaLaw's objection to the Navy's attempt to shuffle its request from agency to agency for no justified reason. The Navy's numerous failures to meet its legal obligations in response to AquaLaw's FOIA justifies this appeal.	11/8/2017	11/30/2017	Partially Affirmed & Partially Reversed/Remanded; Records Referred at Initial Request Level

DON-NAVY-2018-001521	Appeal	Dear Administrator, This is an appeal under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. Â§ 552. On November 14 2017, I received a "No records" decision for request DON-USMC-2018-000152 seeking records related to sampling for Ie Shima Training Facility from 2010 to the present. I believe the search for responsive documents was inadequate. For instance, in September 2017, construction work within the installation was delayed due to the discovery of unexploded munitions - however despite my specific request for records related to munitions, no such reports have been released. Therefore I am requesting that another search be conducted for records relevant to my request. I certify that the information contained in this appeal is true and correct to the best of my knowledge. If materials responsive to my request exist as a subset of a larger dataset, provision of that information would be appreciated. I trust that upon re-consideration, you will re-investigate my request. DON-NAVY-2018-001523	Appeal	Dear Administrator, This is an appeal under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. Â§ 552. On November 14 2017, I received a "No records" decision for request DON-USMC-2018-000149 seeking records related to sampling for Camp Kinser from 2010 to the present. I believe the search for responsive documents was inadequate for the following two reasons: 1. The response letter states "the Shima Training Facility" not the installation requested. 2. On January 12, 2016, TIFFANY CARTER (Gunnery Sergeant, United States Marine Corps Media Relations Chief, Public Affairs Office Headquarters, U.S. Forces, Japan) specifically stated that sampling had been conducted at this installation. This statement contradicts the "No records" response. Therefore I am requesting that another search be conducted for records relevant to my request. DON-NAVY-2018-001526	Appeal	Dear Administrator, This is an appeal under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. Â§ 552. On November 14 2017, I received a "No records" decision for request DON-USMC-2018-000153 seeking records related to sampling for MCAS Futenma from 2010 to the present. I believe the search for responsive documents was inadequate. The installation has been the focus of intense speculation re: discharges of PFOS/PFOA and fuel. The installation has repeatedly denied any environmental harm and these statements must have been based upon surveys within the installation. DON-NAVY-2018-001649	Appeal	I am writing this as a formal request to appeal of the FOIA request submitted on 3rd September that was prematurely rejected with a final response of "no record". I submit this application for appeal based upon the opinion and evidence that my request was ignored or not adequately considered. Following my initial request it was requested that I narrow the parameter of requested documents. I believe that I responded adequately and in a timely fashion to this required further refining of my request. However, I received the response of "no record" delivered the following day and I believe that the timing of this response is evidence that my refined request was not adequately considered. My response with refined parameters was sent on 25th October, and the rejection of my request was sent the following day JST. I do not believe that this time frame would have allowed for adequate consideration. Therefore I would like to request that my adjusted narrowed parameter request be considered adequately before the final conclusion of this request. For your reference, after my original request submission, I received an email from Alan K Banks, Lance Corporal, USMC on 16th October, as follows: Your request is still too broad, despite having already narrowed the parameters to "the time period to 26 November 2014". I was further informed that due to the sheer number of sub-commands and units on Okinawa, the FOIA request can be better addressed if I could identify what specific unit to inquire about (battalion level), and specific violation types (examples include late for curfew, not signing out of the logbook, etc.) I responded on 25th October as follows: the Marine Medium Tiltrotor Squadron 262 and Marine	11/23/2017	12/19/2017	Completely Reversed/Remanded

DON-NAVY-2018-001973	Request	I am interested in the history of this aircraft accident: - date: Feb 03, 1998 - location: Cavalese, Italy - unit: Marine Corp BMAQ-2 This is the well-published accident where the plane cut a cable car's ropes and 20 civilians died. There was and still is a lack of understanding about the trail against the crew. I would like you to consider releasing more information from the original investigation, that means the first trial for involuntary manslaughter. I am specifically less interested in the second trial for obstruction of justice, about the destruction of the videotape. My motive for this is that the public currently has a lot more information about the second trial (the destroyed videotape) and uses this to make unwarranted assumptions about the actual flight mishap. It is unknown whether the tape actually contained information directly implicating the crew. Public information about the investigation into the accident itself (first trial) is practically non-existent. This paints a picture that is possibly distorted. The information that is most needed in my opinion is this: - the different valleys in the area and their minimum altitude and maximum speed restrictions. - whether those restrictions were issued by the US military, the Italian authorities, or both. And when. - in the case of restrictions imposed by the Italian government, what was the mechanism inside the US military to transport such information? - navigational aids that were or were not in place and/or operational at the time (only relevant if different valleys had different restrictions). I am not asking to	12/3/2017	3/27/2018	Partial Grant/Partial Denial	Ex. 6, Ex. 7(C)

DON-NAVY-2018-002560	Request	Every year, the JSGMESB convenes to select incoming residents and DON funded specialty fellowship training opportunities. My request is specific to the fellowship portion of that process, focusing on information regarding adherence to publicly available guidance and selection scoring criteria. Selection details for the US Navy are outlined in BUMEDNOTE 1524 with specific criteria for eligibility to ensure that the best applicants are screened and presented to the selection board. As per Section 5 - Training Eligibility PERS-4415 screens all applicants and ensures that applicants meet requirements for Navy or Department of Defense (DoD) tour-length requirements, promotion, transfer, and compliance with physical readiness.....Residency-trained applicants should have completed or be able to complete a utilization tour (24-36 months) prior to start of fellowship training to be eligible for GME training. This section details multiple requirements to be considered eligible for both residency and fellowship, with additional requirements for those seeking fellowship training stating that applicants should have completed or intend to complete a utilization tour prior to starting in order to be deemed eligible. I would like any information available that shows that those selected have meet that requirement as I have been lead to believe this has not happened. I would like to request copies of applications or at minimum extracts from applications highlighting that this requirements has been met. DON-NAVY-2018-002625	Request	This firm represents Carter Machinery Company. On 19 Dec 2017, the Contracting Officer denied Carter's 6 Dec 2017 request for copies of (1) the Internal Government Estimate and (2) the other offeror's bid line items related to crank shaft replacement in the referenced contract. The Contracting Officer's response states: "Unfortunately , your request cannot be accommodated, as the requested information is considered contractor proprietary and/or business sensitive." The purpose of this letter is to address the error in the Contracting Officer's response so the requested information can be sent without delay, as it is requested in both the 6 Dec 2017 FOIA Request and the 13 Dec 2017 FOIA Request. Carter will be prejudiced if the records are not released sufficiently before its deadline to appeal the COFD on January 18, 2018. With respect to the IGE, Carter seeks only the line item estimates for Work Items 311-21- 003, 311-22-004, 311-23-003, 311-23-008, 311-24-002, and 311-25-005, not the backup calculations or cost data. No proprietary or business sensitive exemption protects this information. If litigation ensues, the IGE line items will certainly be available to Carter, as the Contracting Officer based her denial of Carter's claim on the lack of a "large disparity" in line item amounts. Because the IGE line item amounts are relevant to that analysis, they cannot be withheld now. The same reasoning applies with respect to the specific line items in the other offeror's bid. According to several NAVSEA commands with which I have worked for many years, management training tailored to Federal agencies must go out for bids if it is to be paid for by purchase (credit) card. I contract with several other agencies (within and outside of DoD) without this encumbrance. It seems to apply only within DoN. DON-USMC-2018-000186	Request	To Whom It May Concern, This is a request under the Freedom of Information Act. I am seeking all reports related to the storage of radioactive contaminated materials (including uniforms, cloth and waste) at MCAS Futenma following USFJ operations in Tohoku, Japan, in the wake of the March 2011 tsunami. (In August 2011, USMC notified GOJ such materials were being stored at MCAS Futenma). The dates of the requested reports are from March 2011 to the present. I am making this request as a representative of the media, Okinawa Times. I refer to my media accreditation in support that my request receive expedited processing and fee waiver. I believe my request meets the above requirements for the waiver of fees. I am a member of the news media - correspondent for the daily newspaper, Okinawa Times, editor at Asia-Pacific Journal and contributor for The Japan Times. The information I am seeking will clearly add to public understanding in the U.S. and Japan of issues surrounding the environmental impact of military installations on Okinawa. Previous articles which I have written related to this issue based upon similar reports have been the focus of intense public debate. The documents we are now requesting will form the basis of a series of newspaper articles and they will be shared with public officials, policy-makers and, if deemed appropriate, made available online. My previous research has been featured in reports by the U.S. Congressional Research Service and the Japanese national parliament. I believe this supports my assertion that I am able to disseminate this information widely. There is a urgency to inform the public concerning actual or alleged Federal Government activity.	10/8/2017	10/18/2017	Not an Agency Record

DON-USMC-2018-000356	Request	Pursuant to the federal Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552, I request access to and copies of records of flight logs, sorties, and/or fuel consumption rates for the Marine Corps HMX-1 (Helicopter Squadron) for both 2016 and 2017 (to the latest available record). We are interested in finding out if this administration, including the Secretary of Defense and Joint Chiefs of Staff, use HMX-1 less, the same, or more than the administration under Barack Obama. We are looking for any records of flights taken, specifically by administration officials, that would help us answer this question. This is also why we need access to both 2016 and 2017 records, so we can directly compare the two administrations. Current generation mine resistant vehicles could not stop them without add-on armor. However, the Bull MRAP received no production orders despite its superior performance. DON-USMC-2018-001940	Request	I am interested in the history of this aircraft accident: - date: Feb 03, 1998 - location: Cavalese, Italy - unit: Marine Corp BMAQ-2 This is the well-published accident where the plane cut a cable car's ropes and 20 civilians died. There was and still is a lack of understanding about the trail against the crew. I would like you to consider releasing more information from the original investigation, that means the first trial for involuntary manslaughter. I am specifically less interested in the second trial for obstruction of justice, about the destruction of the videotape. My motive for this is that the public currently has a lot more information about the second trial (the destroyed videotape) and uses this to make unwarranted assumptions about the actual flight mishap. It is unknown whether the tape actually contained information directly implicating the crew. Public information about the investigation into the accident itself (first trial) is practically non-existent. This paints a picture that is possibly distorted. The information that is most needed in my opinion is this: - the different valleys in the area and their minimum altitude and maximum speed restrictions. - whether those restrictions were issued by the US military, the Italian authorities, or both. And when. - in the case of restrictions imposed by the Italian government, what was the mechanism inside the US military to transport such information? - navigational aids that were or were not in place and/or operational at the time (only relevant if different valleys had different restrictions). PFC Giannattasio was found unresponsive during the land navigaton portion of the Basic Reconnaissance Course, which falls under the authority of Training and Education Command (â€œTECOMâ€œ). Marine officials have said that two investigations are being conducted. One is a criminal probe by Naval Criminal Investigative Service (â€œNCISâ€œ) and the other by a unit that falls under TECOM command. The U-T requests both reports. DON-NAVY-2018-002916	Appeal	I am appealing the decision to redact the names of Grieves and other commanders on the following grounds: A commanding officer is, by title and position, considered a person of public trust, and the Department of Justice guidelines for FOIA state that :â€œInformation that would inform the public of violations of the public trust has a strong public interest and is accorded great weight in the balancing process. (138) As a general rule, demonstrated wrongdoing of a serious and intentional nature by a high-level government official is of sufficient public interest to outweigh almost any privacy interest of that official:â€  https://www.justice.gov/oip/foia-guide-2004-edition-exemption-6 The Navy Department also has a longstanding tradition of releasing the names and infractions of commanders who are relieved of command. This bias towards transparency is clearly expressed in the Manual of the Judge Advocate General: â€œThe Department of the Navy has an obligation to ensure senior officials properly discharge the duties and responsibilities of government service,â€ according to the JAGMAN. â€œPublic disclosure of significant departures by senior officials from expected standards of performance and conduct and the DON holding them accountable for such behavior instills public confidence in the institution and is consistent with principles of open governance.â€ We content that the Navy Departmentâ€™s public statements about Grieves and other commanders who have been relieved of command amount to â€œprior disclosureâ€ that require the Navy Department and the Marine Corps specifically to release similar documents when requested. DON-NAVY-2018-002962	Request	Records, cables and reports by the Department of the Navy regarding the October 1999 relocation of the USS Pueblo from Wonsan to Pyongyang in North Korea. The Pueblo is a US ship seized in 1968, in 1999 during the Clinton administration, it was relocated, sailing around the Korean Peninsula from Wonsan on the east coast to Pyongyang on the west coast, at times entering international waters. As the Pueblo is still a US registered ship and US property, that the ship entered international waters and was not seized suggests a deliberate policy on behalf of the Clinton administration. I am requesting the documents formulating and exercising that policy. I am requesting all documents in 1999 relating to the relocation of the Pueblo, and any additional documents if negotiations/planning began in the previous year. The time period of my request is from 01/01/1999 to 12/31/1999 I	1/8/2018	3/9/2018	Not an Agency Record

DON-NAVY-2018-003062	Request	I would like to request the deck plans for the USS General Hoyt S. Vandenberg (T-AGM-10). The ship was stricken from the record on 29 April 1993, so the records, if they exist, should be available to the public. As for details, the Vandenberg began her life as the USS General Harry Taylor (AP-145). She was built by Kaiser Co., Inc. in Richmond California. She was laid down 22 February 1943. 15 July 1961, the Air Force acquired AP-145, re-outfitted the ship as a missile range instrumentation ship, and named her the USAFS General Hoyt S. Vandenberg. She was then transferred to the MSTs and renamed the USNS General Hoyt S. Vandenberg and reclassified as T-AGM-10, going into service 1 July 1964 until going out of service in 1983. She was then stricken from the record on 29 April 1993. The ship is now an artificial reef that lies off the coast of Key West, Fl. I routinely dive her, and would love to be able to see the deck to learn more about the ship. While there are images of the deck plans online, the low resolution are nearly unreadable, but point to the fact that the plans do still exist. DON-NAVY-2018-003519	Request	I am Honorary Member and Unit Historian of Fox Company, 2nd Battalion, 23rd Marines, 4th Marine Division of WWII. A book is in the works and, though the initial manuscript is now with the publisher, additional research continues with the finer details. On 24 April 1944, while the regiment was training in the field on Maui, and was observing a demonstration of overhead mortar fire, a stray round fell amongst a group of men from 1st and 2nd Battalions, 23rd Marines killing two Marines (1stSgt. Ember Townsley, Pfc. James G. Osterhoudt) and injuring others. A casualty card from Sgt Alexander Gonzalez references a Board of Investigation report on the accident. NARA did not find a record of the incident in the USMC Board of Investigation files and suggested that I contact you. There is a second incident. On 16 July 1945, while the 2nd Battalion, 23rd Marines was bivouacked at the battalion training area, a newly arrived replacement Marine, allegedly (b) (6) from North Carolina, stabbed and killed one of Fox Company's veterans of four operations, Johnnie Rex Cox (917415). Indications are that (b) (6) was swept swiftly away to the 5th Amphibious Corps hospital in Makawao, held there briefly, then sent back stateside. In 1997, (b) (6) of North Carolina was indicted for killing a 100 year-old World War One veteran across the hall from him in a Veterans hospital in North Carolina, but he died in 1999, before going to trial. Court documents indicate that he had killed a fellow Marine in 1945 and was given a lobotomy after the war, but 1945 details are lacking including the definitely connecting service	1/23/2018	1/24/2018	No Records

DON-NAVY-2018-003858	Request	I am interested in obtaining the Board of Investigation Report regarding the loss of Flight 19 and a PBM-5 Mariner off the coast of Florida on December 5th, 1945. Flight 19 consisted of 5 Grumman TBM Avenger aircraft based at NAS Fort Lauderdale - Bureau Numbers (BuNo) - 23307, 73209, 46325, 45714, 46094. The group was lost during training exercises. The Martin PBM-5 Mariner was based at NAS Banana River (now Patrick AFB). Bureau Number - 59225. Her crew was part of the search and rescue attempts that were launched following the loss of Flight 19. The crew were lost within an hour of taking off. I understand the location of the file is on a microfilm reel NRS 1983-37. However, this might be information that is now significantly dated. You might be aware that these disappearances are sometimes attributed to mysterious circumstances by some due to the flights taking place in the so called "Bermuda Triangle". However, I believe there is a more rational explanation and I have been unable to locate the full report anywhere online. The report might not help, but I would like to read it to get a more full understanding of what took place that day and to hopefully contribute to the more rational side of two unfortunate accidents	1/30/2018	2/16/2018	Full Grant

We are in early stages of our project and are starting by compiling a fact base that captures the gender breakdown at different points along the women pilot pipeline today. To do this, we are hoping to work with military entities to get a clear view of the status quo as the military is a substantial source of airline industry pilots. Specifically, we are looking for data that illustrates the gender split and how it evolves through the Navy pilot journey. Ideally, we could get 3 types of information: 1. Women pilot %s by pilot type/certification types in the active Navy 2. Statistics on women cadets and men cadets as they go through schooling e.g. matriculation, attrition and graduation rates 3. Statistics on where women pilots and male pilots go after the Navy We would be interested in looking at data from as early back as possible (early	2/6/2018	10/3/2018	Other; Unable to contact the requester

Therefore, pursuant to 49 CFR § 7.28, we are seeking your agency's recommendations on the disclosure of the requested records. Please review the two attached COAs and specifically annotate the information you believe should be withheld and under which FOIA exemption. If we do not concur with your agency's recommended redactions, you will be advised accordingly. If you do not object to the release of the enclosed records, please send me an email, which states: The United States Navy-NCIS has reviewed the material enclosed with the FAA's email dated February 7, 2018, and has no objection to its release under FOIA. It seems apparent that the decision to establish this school was made at a higher level of the US government than the Director of the DODDS because the policies and regulations pertaining to the DODDS would not have permitted the school to be established. DON-NAVY-2018-004395	Appeal	The statute mandates that "each agency, upon any request for records which (i) reasonably describes such records and (ii) is made in accordance with published rules and procedures to be followed, shall make the records promptly available to any person." 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(3)(A). See also Wolf v. CIA, 473 F.3d 370, 374 (D.C. Cir. 2007). Appellants of agencies' de facto denials of expedited-processing requests must be given expedited consideration on administrative appeals. U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(E)(ii)(II); see also 7 C.F.R. § 1.9(a) ("if a request for expedited processing is denied, the agency shall act expeditiously on any appeal of that decision." The agency must make a determination with respect to any appeal within twenty days (excepting Saturdays, Sundays, and legal public holidays) after the receipt of such appeal." 5 U.S.C. § 552 (a)(6)(A)(iii). This timeframe is important for determining when the requester has constructively exhausted an administrative remedy for the release of records. 5 U.S.C. § 552 (a)(6)(C)(i) (providing that a requesting party "shall be deemed to have exhausted his administrative remedies with respect to such request if the agency fails to comply with the applicable time limit provisions of this paragraph"). DON-NAVY-2018-004608	Appeal	My request for NAVAIRDEVCON Report No. NADC-AW-6218 of 5 Oct 1962, "Flight Trials of the Infrared Antisubmarine Warfare Bomb Director Sight Unit" (AD-C955 802) was rejected in its entirety because it supposedly "reveals information that would impair the application of state-of-the-art technology within a U.S. weapon system." I find this determination to be very puzzling. If my memory of this 55-year-old report serves me correctly, this conclusion is way off base. The equipment described in the report represents 1950s technology. It employed an mechanically scanned small array of thermocouples as infrared detectors as opposed to present-day solid-state quantum devices. The electronics employed thermionic vacuum tubes as opposed to present day transistors and/or integrated circuits. The display consisted of a rotating, long-persistence-screen, cathode-ray tube as opposed to a flat-screen display. The technology used in this equipment (a Model T of infrared imaging equipment) was far behind that employed in other devices that we were subjecting to flight trials at the same time and for which reports have been approved for public release. No engineer in his/her right mind would employ the IRASWBDSU technology in a present day weapon system (or even one of 50 years ago). Furthermore, as described in the report, the equipment failed to achieve its design objectives; it employed technology that was obsolescent 55 years ago and the equipment failed to perform its primary advertised	2/21/2018	3/15/2018	Affirmed on Appeal

DON-NAVY-2018-004735	Appeal	NAVFAC NW has denied my legal right to seek information via FOIA law. They have failed to reply to legitimate FOIA requests in a timely manner, have illegally aggregated requests to discourage me from getting documents, and took it upon themselves to deny my legal right to use FOIA and/or Discovery for seeking documents. The documents are not related and therefore may not be aggregated into one request in order to charge fees (and discourage FOIA requests). The FOIA laws and intent are very very clear, "Multiple requests involving unrelated matters will not be aggregated". The spirit and intent of the FOIA laws are not being met. DON-NAVY-2018-004867	Appeal	My request for NAVAIRDEVCON Report "Submarine Wake Detection, Flight Trials of the AN/AAR-13 (XH-1)" of 3 Oct 1962 by (b) (6) and (b) (6) was rejected in its entirety because it supposedly "reveals information that would impair the application of state-of-the-art technology within a U.S. weapon system." If my memory of this 55-year-old report serves me correctly, this puzzling conclusion is way off base. The equipment described in the report represents 1950s technology. It employed a fixed transverse detector array of 60 thermistor bolometers at the focus of an optical system that used the forward motion of the carrying aircraft to scan the scene below in a "pushbroom" fashion. The detector array required a battery of low-noise dry cells to provide bias. Thermionic vacuum tubes were used in the electronics. A present day system would employ an array of high-bandwidth, solid-state quantum detectors, and transistor- and/or integrated-circuit electronics. The equipment provided only a 60-degree lateral field of view and a resolution of one angular degree. Present day systems provide a significantly higher resolution, field of view, and information rate. This equipment and the requested report are simply a historical data point; the report is certainly not a design document for a component of a state-of-the-art weapon system nor is it clear that somehow releasing this report would impair the application of state-of-the-art technology within a U.S. weapon system. Furthermore, reports on the detection of submarine wakes by airborne passive infrared imaging devices bearing the DTIC accession numbers ADC955796, ADC955804, ADC955798, ADC955799, ADC955801, AD559080L, AD339356L,	2/27/2018	3/15/2018	Affirmed on Appeal

DON JAG Appeals Case Records of Final Determination Letter 18 Sep 2013  This appeal will be timely for judicial review within twenty working days  BASIS FOR APPEAL 1. I am appealing the adequacy of the Agency's search. a. The Agency did not describe whose individual email Outlook pst files were searched, which should include every member of the DON JAG office involved in FOIA or PA matters in any way whatsoever. b. The Agency did not search for all records of correspondence with any party subsequent to the 18 Sep Final determination letter regarding any matter related to the Appeals processing or final determination, including correspondence to and from (b) (6) c. Subsequent to Lattin's final determination letter, I sent him considerable correspondence seeking the statutory basis of denials for the requests in said final determination. The Agency copies of said correspondence and any records associated with s correspondence are responsive to this FOIA request, required to have been retained in the Appeals case file for 6 years after he final agency action or 3 years after final adjudication by the courts, whichever is later NARA GRS 42. Item 20. Lattin himself is in possession of responsive records, which the Agency is withholding. 2. I am appealing that the Agency has not and cannot meet its burden in claiming Exemption 5 with respect to any of the redactions. a. The Agency has improperly redacted two Walter Reed memorandums for records under Exemption 5. See Enclosure (3) and (4), DON JAG response pages 236- 237 and 402 404. b. A FOIA Officer's (Bizzell's) memorandum for	3/21/2018	4/13/2018	Affirmed on Appeal

DON-NAVY-2018-005783	Request	I am requesting a spreadsheet detailing the number of reportable events of negligent discharges and friendly fire in the Navy and Marines, on- and off-duty from Sept. 11, 2001 until the date this request is fulfilled. In the spreadsheet, I am requesting location and date/time, DOD reportable severity level A-D, identification of whether the event took place in service of Operation Iraqi Freedom or Operation Enduring Freedom, and any narrative included in the report. I would like to receive the information in electronic format. The information I am requesting is released annually on the Naval Safety Center Website, but not compiled in a comprehensive manner. News articles on this issue (included in second page of this letter) are outdated and variously count the number of fatalities from 85 to a sum of 270, a discrepancy of almost 100 lives. The news value of this information rests in the public's right to accurately evaluate the performance of efforts to promote safe weapons handling and safety -- a matter literally of life and death for the nation's troops. We have a right to request the data under DoD directive and for our request to be treated as if it were a FOIA or via an agency-to-agency release. We cite DoD's Principles of Information, DoD Directive (DoDD) 5122.5, which requires that DOD ensure a free flow of news and information to the news media, the general public and the internal audiences of the Department of Defense. Furthermore, DOD Directive 5400.7-R paragraph C5.1.4. stipulates records are permitted to be released to federal agencies that are exempt from release to the public under the FOIA, but handled as agency-to-	3/23/2018	3/26/2018	Improper FOIA Request for Other Reasons

DON-USMC-2018-003153	Request	Good afternoon Ma'am or Sir, I am trying to locate information for a court martial case "United States v. Sgt (b) (6), USMC, Special Court-Martial, Western Judicial Circuit, Navy-Marine Corps Trial Judiciary". I was discharged from active duty Marine Corps for the same reason that Sgt (b) (6) went to court martial over. He won his case and I believe that any information related to the outcome of this case will help me with my upgrade package to the Naval Discharge Review Board. I am requesting any information that can be made public in this request and it will solely be used for helping me in my attempt to show how these cases were all handled differently and there was no systematic approach to how punishment was issued. I did try and get the records from the defense office but they informed me this would be the best possible way to obtain these records. I am unsure if this is the correct means to ask for these records and if I am wrong could you please let me know how to go about it. During the Mayaguez Incident in May 1975, three Marines were left behind on Koh Tang island in Cambodia. Their names are as follows, Marine Pvt. (b) (6) (b) (6) Marine Pvt. 1st Class (b) (6) and Marine Lance Cpl. (b) (6). They were from Echo Co., 2-9. I recently requested their personnel files from NPRC. I was told the following: "The military record was loaned to the US Marine Corps and has not yet been returned to the National Personnel Records Center. We are forwarding your request to that agency." Then on a separate sheet it says " (b) (6) (b) (6) at Quantico advised that they have the record." I am requesting the three personnel files for (b) (6) and (b) (6) 2. I also recently requested the command chronologies from 2-9 and all other Marine unit records from the Mayaguez Incident in the possession of the National Archives. If you look at the attached document, it mentions a report that was done on the three missing Marines, (b) (6) and (b) (6) after the incident in May 1975. I am requesting that complete report. The National Archives' (b) (6), who Mr. (b) (6) was familiar with when we spoke, directed me to the Marine Corps as the custodian of this record. 3.
